

Dear FCC,

You can't back down to the political influences of the advertising industry. XM is a service that improves the quality of life for citizens in this country. There is no reason why a service for the public should be denied public information such as Traffic and Weather.